

I would rather you leave the Indiana State Law regarding telephone privacy as it is. I do not want people calling me. It is bad enough to get all the junk mail we receive. If these places would take just the postage and give it to charity, there wouldn't be any need for "drives" for charity, nor phone calls for donations, etc.